New Logo, UL Code Mark, Dot with Lot No., & Elimination of Japan Mark on JWMW Switch Case; Changes to Product Packaging

Type of Change:

- Engineering Part Number
 Product Appearance

The new NKK logo will be on the same side of the JWMW switch case as the part number. The word “Japan” will no longer appear near the bottom of the case. On the opposite side of the case, the UL approval will be displayed when specified to add “/CUL”. Below that, the lot number will be visible with a dot above it. These changes are outlined below, and will effect both standard and custom products for the JWMW Rockers. Modifications to product packaging for the JWMW Series are explained and illustrated on page 2.
